

DEVOPSDAYS BOISE

Sponsorship Package
2018

Past Sponsors*

* Sponsors for past DevOpsDays Boise and DevOps Boise conferences.

Event Features

We are offering partnership opportunities to companies that align with our industry professionals, in hopes of providing further value to both our attendees and your business. Sponsorships will directly support conference needs, such as venue, food and beverage, keynote speakers and giveaways. A sponsorship package is attached for your review.

Our goal is to ensure your commitment brings value to your business, so please discuss custom package offerings we can develop, if those provided do not meet your needs.

DevOpsDays Boise Conference in beautiful Boise, Idaho will be taking place on Wednesday, June 6th, 2018 at Boise Center East. This conference will allow for conversation within the DevOps industry surrounding latest techniques and best practices. This one day conference will be a collaboration of main stage keynote speakers, as well as, more intimate topic specific breakout sessions. Based on the increasing popularity of this conference each year, we anticipate an increase with our attendee profile.

Attendee Profile

250-300 technology professionals attend

Professionals' income range is $50K to $200K

Average age of attendees are 25-40

Special Thanks

On behalf of DevOpsDays Boise, we thank you for your partnership. We take great pride in partnering with you and look forward to the continuing our relationship in the years to come.

We will be following up with you in the next week to help answer any questions you might have or secure your sponsorship for the event.
